Education

2015 – 2020 Lalitpur, Nepal	Bsc CSIT Tribhuvan University ↗ I completed a comprehensive four-year undergraduate program in BSc CSIT(Computer Science and Information Technology) under Tribhuvan University. The curriculum emphasized both theoretical foundations and practical applications of computing and IT systems. During the program, I gained proficiency in multiple programming languages, including C++, Java, and Python, and developed a strong understanding of data structures, algorithms, and software engineering principles. The coursework also included database management systems, computer networks, and cybersecurity, which equipped me with essential skills in managing and securing data and systems. Additionally, I explored advanced topics such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, and cloud computing, while honing my abilities in web and mobile application development. A significant part of my education was the final year project, where I applied my learning to solve real-world problems effectively. This academic foundation has prepared me to tackle challenges in software development, system analysis, and IT management with confidence and expertise.
2013 – 2015 Kathmandu, Nepal	+2 Kathmandu Unified City College ↗
